2008 Olympic Champions at the 3rd Annual Kim Zmeskal's Texas Prime Gymnastics Event

Coppell, Texas—Texas Dreams Gymnastics and EveryBody Fits will host Kim Zmeskal's Texas Prime Meet, with gymnasts from all over the U.S. competing January 23rd - January 25th. Making special appearances for the Legendz Classic held Saturday night will be Olympic All Around Champion Nastia Liukin, Olympic gold medalist, Shawn Johnson, and silver medalist, Alicia Sacramone.

On Saturday evening, January 24th, these Beijing Olympic teammates will become competitors as they each captain a team of Level 9 & Level 10 gymnasts who have qualified to this unique event. The Legendz Classic features high energy music, revamped scoring requirements, personal interviews, and an autograph session at the end of the evening.

“Prime is synonymous with the best of quality,” said Kim Zmeskal Burdette, organizer of the meet. “We are striving to make this year's event nothing less than ‘prime’.”

Zmeskal remains an icon in the world of gymnastics, becoming America's first All-Around World Champion in 1992, while winning a bronze medal at the Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain that same year. She and her husband, Chris Burdette, are the directors and also coach at the state-of-the-art Texas Dreams facility located at EveryBody Fits in Coppell.

While promoters anticipate a sell-out for this event, tickets for the meet, including the Legendz Classic, remain available at the venue. Contact EveryBody Fits, 972-471-2345, for information.
