Local Cheer Squad Heads to Nationals

COPPELL – Texas Flyers Cheerleading’s Junior Flyers squad heads to Nationals next month in Dallas. They received an invitation to Nationals while competing – along with 150 other teams from all over Texas – in the 9th Annual Pro Spirit Holiday Challenge in Dallas.

The squad will compete at the NCA All Star Nationals in the “Youth Let’s Cheer” division. The competition is on Feb. 10-13 at the Dallas Convention Center.

The Junior Flyers earned their invitation after placing first out of 11 teams in their respective category at the Pro Spirit Holiday Challenge. When scoring, judges typically look for overall uniformity, showmanship, tumbling and stunting skills, and choreography.

A newer program, the Junior Flyers team consists of 17 girls aged 5-8 years old, many who are experiencing cheerleading for the first time.

“The Junior Flyers program is only about a year old, so to be so successful at this point is a real joy,” said head coach Scott Taute. “They work hard and really cheer their hearts out when competing. I’m looking forward to seeing what they can accomplish at Nationals.”

The Junior Flyers also placed first in the Fellowship of Christian Cheerleaders Texas Classic. Their next competition is American Cheer Power’s New Year’s Holiday Championship on Jan. 7-8 in Garland, Texas, followed by Nationals.

Texas Flyers Cheerleading’s senior squad, the Texas Flyers, has also been successful, placing first and second at consecutive tournaments in December. They are currently waiting for their bid to Nationals. The squad is made up of 26 girls, aged 8-15 years old.
