Art House Coppell on the Move

COPPELL – Art House, located in Old Town Coppell, is joining facilities with their sister location at EveryBody Fits on Sept. 5. In addition, Art House summer camps, which were previously hosted at the Coppell YMCA, will now be exclusively available at EveryBody Fits. The new combined location will provide Art House at EveryBody Fits' members with a wider selection of year-round activities and curriculum.

Among the new offerings at Art House at EveryBody Fits are Kids Clay and Adult Clay, Teen Studio Artists, Home School Studio Artists, and much more. The new location will also be home to all of Art House Coppell's equipment and supplies.

"We're very excited about this move," said Kathleen House, owner of Art House. "The new classes and the all-in-one experience you get from EveryBody Fits will be beneficial to all of our members."

To view the new Art House at EveryBody Fits fall schedule visit the Web site at www.EveryBody-Fits.com or call 972-471-2345. For more information about Art House, visit www.studioarthouse.com/coppell.

About Art House and EveryBody Fits

Founded by a family of artists, Art House inspires creative expression and artistic development in every student. Owner Kathleen House has been sharing her passion for art with the Coppell community for more than 20 years, first developing the elementary art education program for Coppell ISD and then founding Art House, located in Flower Mound, McKinney, and at EveryBody Fits in Coppell.
